

We are honored to announce the Mother Lessie M. Echols Memorial Book Scholarship.

This scholarship is created to celebrate the life and legacy of Mother Lessie M. Echols by empowering students on their educational journey. This scholarship is for a second year or graduate students pursuing a degree in education to help cover the cost of textbooks and essential course materials because no student should have to choose between their education and their finances.

To apply complete the application online.

This year we will offer 2 scholarship awards in the amount of $500.00 each.

The dead line to apply is June 30, 2025

Apply now and take one more step toward achieving your goals.

Mother Lessie M. Echols Memorial Book Scholarship is a tribute to a woman who believed deeply in the power of education and the strength of community. We are proud to continue her legacy by investing in the success of today's students she deeply loved and cared about.
